Kitsilano Showers

Kitsilano Community Centre is an inclusive, service orientated community organization which strives to provide innovative, creative, quality services that have a positive impact on our community.

Every Saturday morning from 7:30 to 10:00 am, volunteers from neighbouring churches take turns running a weekly drop-in program at the Kitsilano Community Centre, 2690 Larch Street in Vancouver.

People who are homeless are offered coffee, breakfast, use of the washrooms and showers, new undergarments, donated clothes and shoes, towels, toiletries, and a takeaway sandwich.

Referrals are made to dentists, opticians, nurses and social service agencies.

People who are homeless are also able to use the Community Centre showers on other days. A long-term goal is to expand the shower program to include other community centres in Vancouver.
