

Fact Sheet

What you can do to help solve homelessness.

- Learn about the Regional Homelessness Plan for Metro Vancouver: (www.metrovancouver.org/planning/homelessness/Pages/RegionalHomelessnessPlan.aspxwww.gvrd.bc.ca/homelessness/).
- Support local projects that provide homes for people who need them.
- Write a letter to the elected officials that represent your area. Personal letters that describe how homelessness affects you and your community are generally more effective than form letters. Letters to federal MPs can be sent free of charge.

- Be respectful and courteous to homeless people.
- Volunteer your time and skills – contact local organizations and ask how you can help.
- Donate funds or goods to local organizations that are making a difference.
- Talk to your family, friends and colleagues about the solutions to homelessness.

What your organization or business can do.

- Get the word out – use your newsletters, websites and correspondence to talk about Homelessness Action Week (provide a link to stophomelessness.ca).
- Organize a ‘drive’ – clothes, shoes, socks, food, bedding and cash donations are needed and can be delivered to an agency serving people who are homeless.
- Hold a meeting or workshop to discuss solutions to homelessness.
- Volunteer – there are outreach events for people who are homeless throughout the Metro Vancouver region.

We all have a role to play in solving homelessness.
